

When will the aftermarket recover to 2019's levels?

Paolo Lironi, Chief Executive Officer, SGI Aviation

Conference Call, Friday 22 January 2021
15.30 GMT / 16h30 CET / 10.30 EST

Please click here to register and receive dial-in details.

Paolo Lironi is the Chief Executive Officer of SGI Group companies, which includes SGI Aviation Services B.V. in the Netherlands, SGI Aviation (Asia) Pte Ltd in Singapore, SGI Guernsey Limited and SGI Aviation LLC in the US. SGI has more than 12 years of history, a global presence and over 50 employees. The group is active in commercial aviation contracts and asset management services, aircraft and engines technical consultancy and operationally supports the Aircraft Registry of Guernsey. SGI clients include financial institutions as well as large lessors, banks and commercial airlines.

Mr Lironi joined SGI in 2008, with more than ten years of experience in commercial aviation. He has a background in managing engines, negotiating MRO and lease contracts, dealing with OEM and a very detailed knowledge of engine technical issues. Mr Lironi also holds a degree in Aerospace Engineering and a Masters in Aerodynamics. He covered several positions within Italian airlines, including Air Europe and Volare, and acted as director of powerplant services with IASG. Mr Lironi holds an MBA degree from MIP School of Business and is a graduate of Politecnico di Milano in Milan, Italy.