

Italian Political Risk: The Implications of 2020's Key Events

Francesco Galietti, Co-founder and CEO of Policy Sonar

Conference Call, Monday 8 February 2021
15.30 GMT / 16h30 CET / 10.30 EST

Please click here to register and receive dial-in details.

Francesco is the co-founder and CEO of Policy Sonar, a Rome-based consultancy specialising in scenarios analysis, non-market risk strategies and political risk management for global investors and Fortune 500 industrial players.

Francesco is an adjunct professor of scenarios analysis and strategic foresight at LUISS business school in Rome, Italy. Since 2013, Francesco has also been a research affiliate with SovereignNET, a centre of the Fletcher School in Boston, US, dedicated to the study of sovereign wealth. He is a member of the International Institute of Strategic Studies (IISS) in London, UK. Francesco is on the supervisory board of Fondazione CRT, a large Italian banking foundation, and serves as independent and non-executive board member of Banca Sistema. Earlier in his career, he served as senior advisor at the Italian Ministry of Finance, consulted with the task force on sovereign wealth funds at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Cassa Depositi SpA, and worked with renowned law firms.

Francesco holds a Ph.D. in Law and Economics from the Technical University of Darmstadt, Germany.