

Where next for UK monetary policy?

Ian McCafferty, Senior Adviser at Oxford Economics Limited and Visiting Professor, King's College

Conference Call, Thursday 28 January 2021
15.30 GMT / 16h30 CET / 10.30 EST

Please click here to register and receive dial-in details.

Ian McCafferty is Senior Adviser, Oxford Economics, and a member of the Investment Committee for London Wall Partners. From 2012 to 2018, he was a member of the Monetary Policy Committee at the Bank of England. Prior to that, he had been Chief Economic Adviser to the CBI since 2001. He joined the CBI from BP, where he was Head of Macroeconomics. Previously, he spent ten years in the City, as Chief International Economist for both Natwest Markets and Baring Securities. Earlier in his career, he had worked for the CBI, at The Economist newspaper and at the International Chamber of Commerce, in Paris. He is a Visiting Professor at King's College, London, and a Fellow of the Society of Professional Economists. He graduated from Durham University, and did his postgraduate work at the University of Amsterdam. He was awarded an honorary doctorate in Economics by Nottingham Trent University in 2012. He was made a CBE in 2019.